

ADJECTIVE / VERB + PREPOSITION

Drag and drop the correct preposition into the boxes.

We've run  of milk. I need to go to the supermarket.

My little brother believes  Santa Clause.

I agree  what you said.

Our car broke  so we had to call the mechanic.

Fill  this form and wait to be called in.

She often argues  her best friend.

He's good  football.

Can you turn  the light?

I can't wait  the weekend when I can finally sleep in!

Turn  your computer and go for a walk!

She's bad  cooking.

I can't log , I've forgotten my password.

Tom is afraid  snakes.

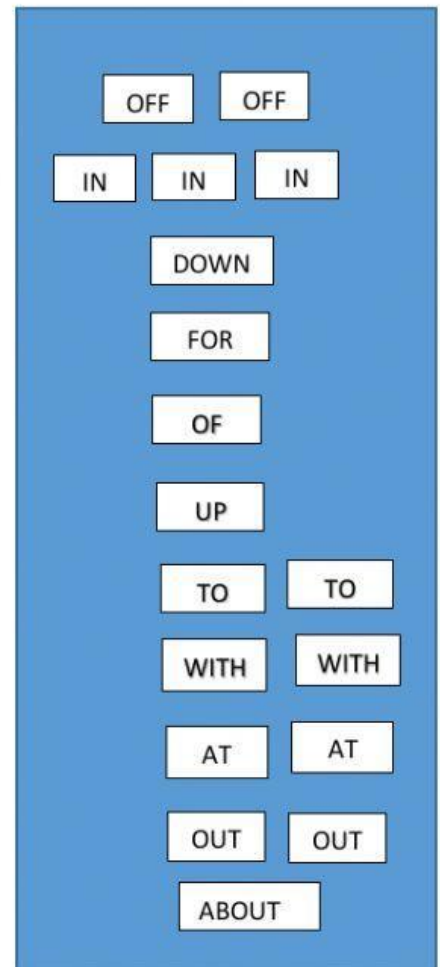

We travelled  Asia.

He tried to keep  with the other runners but he still fell behind.

What are you listening  right now?

I'm interested  learning how to surf.

He's worried  his grades.

I was told  by my teacher for talking in class.

My parents worry  my safety.

This dog belongs  my neighbour.

I get on really well  my cousin.

He turned  the job.

Turn  that music! I can't focus.

I can't solve this Maths problem. I give  !

I arrived  school at 7 am.

I've met him once, but I haven't talked  him yet.

He arrived to Sydney airport  midnight.

I'm looking  my keys.

Look  the stars! They're beautiful.

The firefighters  out the fire with ease.

I have to look  my sister this evening.

You can look  paintings at the museum.

Tom looks  to Usain Bolt.

They're waiting  the 8 o'clock train.

OFF

DOWN

DOWN

FOR

FOR

UP

UP

TO

TO

TO

WITH

AT

AT

AT

OUT

ABOUT

AFTER