

Newspaper Article

Match Headlines with Reports

Sheep magically disappeared.

Chelmer Monster Scare!

Invasion Scare

Magic Pyramid

Peacock excitement

School year with shorter Summer holiday

Rescued by Heroes

Poisonous sprays out of fashion

No buses to or From Village Green

Hat - trick for Chelsea

Distress signal rescues fisherman

Children discover gold and silver

Firemen rescue Rhubarb

Where is the Summer?

| Sno | Report                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Headline |
|---------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| 1       | Last night Chelsea football club beat Bristol City 3-2 in an exciting game. Johns scored a hat-trick for Chelsea.                                                                                                                                                                                          |          |
| 2       | Three children were walking across a field in Chelmsford when they discovered a hole. At the bottom of the hole was a chest filled with gold and silver. The children ran and told the police about their discovery.                                                                                       |          |
| 3       | Two days ago a kitten called Rhubarb, belonging to Mrs. Daniels, climbed a tree. It got stuck at the top and could not get down. A large crowd gathered. They could not help the cat. In the end they sent for the fire brigade. The firemen put a ladder up the tree and brought the frightened cat down. |          |
| 4       | Yesterday there was a bad storm at sea. The fishing vessel Saucy Sal began to sink. The captain of the vessel sent out a distress signal. A lifeboat put out to sea and rescued the fisherman just in time.                                                                                         |          |
| 5       | About ten thousand soldiers were seen marching up and down the hill near York.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |          |
| 6       | It has been reported that Little Bo-peep cannot find her sheep. They seem to have magically disappeared. She has looked for them everywhere.                                                                                                                                                               |          |
| 7       | Although the old bus stop beside a village green in Broomfield is rarely used. The only way Hannah gets to the village is by bus. But this is about to                                                                                                                                                     |          |

|           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|           | change. Council cannot afford to run a bus service.                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| 8  | Temperatures today will not rise above 12°C, which is below average for June. There is a possibility of rain and gusts of wind.                                                                                                                                      |  |
| 9  | Jane and Ross are heroes to 84 year old Mrs. Bennett. "They saved my life," she said from her hospital bed.                                                                                                                                                          |  |
| 10 | It would be good to have the school year split into four terms instead of three. The summer holiday is too long. We forget a lot during a six weeks holiday. If we had a shorter summer holiday we would not need to spend so much time on revision every September. |  |
| 11 | Dave thinks that there really is a monster living in Chelmsford. He has taken strange dark monster shapes near River Chelmer.                                                                                                                                        |  |
| 12 | A Scientist has been researching pyramids. He has discovered a pyramid with a magical entrance.                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| 13 | A new trap for catching woodworms is on sale in Essex. We will no longer have to use poisonous sprays to get rid of them.                                                                                                                                            |  |
| 14 | A peacock has been seen flying over Peggotty close. It was reported missing from the zoo last week. It created a lot of excitement around the Newlands Spring area.                                                                                                  |  |