

Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

Natasha,

I hope you are fine! I (1. write) to tell you what happened to my cat, Sammy, last month.

Every night, Sammy (2. go) out in search of mice. She (3. be not) a bad cat but she (4. can) be naughty at times. As she (5. like) going out, my parents always (6. leave) the back window open. So, she (7. come) and goes all the time.

But that night (8. be) different. She (9. look) for mice in an old building some blocks away from my home. Suddenly, she (10. see) a mouse. It (11. climb) into a huge box and Sammy (12. follow) it. Then something awful (13. happen) to her!

While Sammy (14. chase) the mouse, someone (15. put) a top on the box. She (16. can not) escape! Two weeks later, a man (17. take) the box off a ship in France. When he (18. open) it, a cat (19. sleep) inside. It (19. wear) a collar. It was Sammy! A week later, she (20. travel) back home by plane!

Now, Sammy (21. be) back at home! We (22. feed) her because she's really hungry. It's been a long trip home!

Write back soon!

Nina.