Dear Mrs Petunia,
I must inform you about the tragic death of your sister and her husband. They were murdered by a dark wizard called Voldemort, while protecting their son, Harry.

Voldemort is defeated and Harry has survived, at the cost of two lives. The scar on boy's head is a resultant of last night's event. Harry has no living relative, except you. He has to be now with you. Please, take care of him.

Yours sincerely,

Minerva McGonagall
