

1. Match the words to their synonyms.

<input type="radio"/> 1 shy	<input type="radio"/> a easy to like
<input type="radio"/> 2 lonely	<input type="radio"/> b timid
<input type="radio"/> 3 lovable	<input type="radio"/> c crafty
<input type="radio"/> 4 cunning	<input type="radio"/> d alone
<input type="radio"/> 5 nutty	<input type="radio"/> e pleasant
<input type="radio"/> 6 brave	<input type="radio"/> f crazy
<input type="radio"/> 7 intelligent	<input type="radio"/> g clever
<input type="radio"/> 8 sociable	<input type="radio"/> h courageous
<input type="radio"/> 9 charming	<input type="radio"/> i friendly

2. Use the words to compare the three girls.

- 1 Jill/long hair/Kelly ► Jill has longer hair than Kelly.
- 2 Laura/charming/all
- 3 Laura/short/Jill
- 4 Kelly/short/Laura
- 5 Laura/sociable/Kelly
- 6 Jill/serious/all
- 7 Kelly/shy/all
- 8 Kelly/old/Laura
- 9 Jill/old/Laura
- 10 Laura/thin/all

Adjectives	Comparative	Superlative	RULE
big	bigger	the biggest brave	braver	the bravest
funny	funnier	the funniest
famous	more famous	the most famous
good	better	the best
bad	worse	the worst

Note: We use as + adjective/adverb + as to show that two people or things are/aren't equal.
Frank is as clever as Jim. Anna isn't as rich as Bill.

