

Find the correct answer for the spaces below.

1. _____ are needed by plants to make their own food.

Water and carbon dioxide

Water and air

2. _____ softens the testa for the embryo to come out during germination.

3. _____ is the type of germination where the cotyledons come above the ground.

4. _____ is the component of air needed for a seed to germinate.

Nitrogen

Oxygen

5. _____ is the part of the embryo that comes out first during germination.

6. _____ provides optimum temperature for a seed to germinate.

