

PUT THE STORY IN ORDER.

- a They promised to help each other.
- b After a little time there was a great noise.
- c The friend answered, "The bear said, "Do not go with friends who run away from you when you want their help most.""
- d Once there were two friends who were going through the forest.
- e A bear came out from the trees.
- f He asked, "What did the bear say to you when it put its mouth so near to your ear?"
- g The bear came near and smelled him.
- h The other friend came down from the tree.
- i At once one of the friends ran and got up into the tree.
- j The other friend was fat so he fell down at the foot of the tree.
- k The bear thought that the fat man was dead.
- l He pretended to be dead.
