Diary of Little Red Riding Hood

Saturday 4th May

Dear Diary,

This morning, my mom told me to bring food to Granny. On the way to Granny, I pick some flowers and play with animals. Suddenly, I found a wolf behind the tree. He told me shortcut to Granny's house so I stupidly believe him.

Finally, I reached Granny's house. I found out that something went wrong. I felt very scared because the wolf in Granny's house was going to eat me.

Next, a woodcutter appeared and saved me from the wolf. I felt relieved because I didn't want to be someone's food.

After that, he took me home. It was such a scary adventure. I don't think I'll ever trust a wolf again.
