Subject: dangers that travelers are exposed to in Ecuador

Dear Monica,

How are you? I heard from Danny that maybe you were sick. If so, I hope that you are feeling well now.

I'm writing you this email because I want you to write a long article about the dangers that travelers are exposed to in Ecuador. I also want a short documentary with pictures from the whole country. I don't want you to only stay in the Amazon, but also to explore the highlands and the coast too. I am sure that this wasn't your plan due to the limited time you have. I know you must need money to do everything. Therefore, I already talked to the finance department, and they will make a deposit in your account whenever you need it.

Please let me know right away if you want to accept my offer. Get well soon.

Sincerely,

N. K Lee
