

As I ran down the road I hardly (1) noticed / was noticing that it (2) snowed / was snowing, and when I got to the station I (3) kept / was keeping on running until I reached the platform where I hoped to catch the train Sophie was leaving on. But it (4) already went / had already gone.

Furious with myself for missing her, I was about to leave the station when suddenly there was an announcement saying that so much snow (5) fell / had fallen this side of Upton Junction, the next station, that the line was blocked in both directions. Which meant that Sophie's train (6) didn't go / wasn't going anywhere, at least for a while.

I remembered there (7) used to be / was being a bus to Upton, but when I asked about it at the information office they told me it no longer went there. It (8) was seeming / seemed there was no way I could catch up with Sophie, and I left the station. But right outside I spotted a row of bicycles for hire.

Fortunately I (9) 'd been / 'd been going to a cashpoint earlier and I had plenty of money on me, so I chose a bike and a few seconds later I (10) would pedal / was pedalling as fast as I could in the direction of Upton.

Meeting at the station part II.
