

a Read the text and complete the gaps with these verbs in the correct form.

do drink drive earn eat have (x2)
know live spend think travel work

Is this the typical British man?

Statistics tell us that the typical British man is 40 years old,¹ lives in a house and is married with two children. He ² works more than 40 hours a week and ³ earns about £25,000 a year. He ⁴ spends between fifty minutes and an hour to and from work every day. He ⁵ drives a Ford car and he ⁶ thinks he is a good driver.

The typical British man is overweight (he weighs about 82.5 kg) and he ⁷ eats less than 30 minutes exercise a week. He usually sleeps about seven hours a night. He is not a great cook, but he ⁸ knows how to make four dishes, including Spaghetti Bolognese. He ⁹ drinks three cups of tea a day and during his life he ¹⁰ has eaten approximately 35,000 biscuits.

The typical British man ¹¹ has eight close friends and more than eighty contacts on his mobile phone. He ¹² owns three TVs, a copy of Queen's Greatest Hits, and at least one of the Harry Potter books. He ¹³ uses thirteen hours online every week and forty-five hours a year waiting 'on hold' on the phone.

