NAME: _____ DATE: _____

HOW DOES A SEED BECOME A PLANT?

All seeds are made of _____ parts. These three parts are called

_____ , _____ , and

_____ . The seed coat goes around the _____ of the seed. It _____ the seed. The embryo is the tiny _____ plant inside of the seed. The endosperm is _____ inside of the seed. Seeds that are in your hand or in your food will not grow. They are _____ .

Another word for "sleeping" is _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

All seeds need three things: _____ , the right _____ , and _____ . When seeds begin to grow, this is called

_____ . The first part of the plant to come out of the seed is the _____ . Roots always grow _____ . After the root comes out going downward, a _____ comes out going _____ .

When a plant grows upward and out of the ground, we say it has _____ .

When plants get bigger and become adults, they make _____ of their own.

LIVEWORKSHEETS