looked before touristic de	velopment, the sec	cond one after.
The island, which has pal	m trees, is	250 m	etres long. It is a sea and has	a beach on	. Over an undisclosed period, the island was		with the	a hotel and a pier, however the	of the island appears to have been left untouched. additions are the hotel rooms. 6 buildings, surrounding some trees, have been built the island and 9 buildings have been constructed in the the island. Between both a reception area and a restaurant has been deve		Weell bottl	, a reception area and a A pier, which	the reception, has also been b		built on the island, allowing yachts to	dock and access t	he resort. Apart from the tree	s, the beach remains the only natural feature that has been		although it now has a swimming area
