

Error Correction – Consumerism and Financial Awareness 1

Darren did not come from a well-to-do family. One day, he (0) ask	0 asked his father is he could have a bicycle to cycle to school. Walking to	1 _____ school took him at least half (1) a hour. His father told him (2) sad	2 _____ that unfortunately he could not afford to buy a bicycle for him.	3 _____
Darren understood the situation. He thought of ways to (3) earned	4 _____ money and buy the bicycle himself. His friend (4) suggest that since	5 _____ he was good at mathematics he could give maths tuition to his	6 _____ schoolmates. Darren thought it was a good idea. He advertised (5)	7 _____
him services on the school notice board. Soon, he had two	8 _____ students. He taught them in the evenings (6) during school at their homes. Darren was a (7) patiently tutor. His students had no problem understanding him. They both did very well in their exams.
After a few months of (8) tutor , Darren had made enough money to buy his bicycle. However, since he enjoyed tutoring, he continued doing it.

Error Correction – Consumerism and Financial Awareness 2

It is good to (0) started saving your money as soon as possible. You	0 start never know when it may come in handy. However, you should first	1 _____ set specific goals for how much you want to (1) saving . For	2 _____ instance, you might set a goal that you will reward yourself (2) by a	3 _____ slice of cake every time you save RM 100. If you (3) is saving for a	4 _____ specific thing, do not forget to account for the cost of sales tax,	5 _____ which is an extra charge added on to the price of almost anything	6 _____ you buy. You should also keep your money somewhere safe, like a	7 _____ money box in your cupboard. (4) These is to avoid your money	8 _____ getting lost (5) and stolen. You could also put (6) its in a savings account where you can get an interest rate. It is (7) the good idea to make a chart so that you can keep track of (8) which you have spent. This will keep you motivated to continue saving!	