

Subject & Object Pronouns

Replace the words in brackets by the correct personal pronouns.

My name is Kate and am American. And this is my family. My mum's name is Susan. (Susan) is from Germany. Tom is my dad. (Tom) is a builder. In the photo on the left you can see John. (John) is my cousin and the woman next to (John) is his sister, Margaret. (John and Margaret) are twins. Their dog is Blackie. (Blackie) is two years old. (John, Margaret and Blackie) live in Los Angeles. (Los Angeles) is very far from Dallas. My grandparents live in Huston. (My grandparents) often come and see (I, Susan and Tom)

I have some presents for my family. Check what I have for them.

My sister Judy loves music. This CD is for My children like Paw Patrol. The toys are for My brother Tom collects mugs. These mugs are for
My parents like books. This crime story is
I like dancing. This nice dress is for
My cousin Bob likes sweets. The sweets are for.....
My best friend wants to go to London next year. The map is for.....

Replace the underlined parts with pronouns.

Do you like action movies?
Do your parents know Mr. Brown?
Do her parents know you and Bill?
Does your friend know your parents?
Do you have his book?
Do you help your father?
Does your classmate understand me and you?
Do you know my mother?
Do you play with your brothers?
Do Tom and I understand Russian?
Do you like snakes?
Do you and Mike understand me?
Do Kate and Tom like Maria?
Do you believe in ghosts?
Does your friend like you?
Do your friends understand Oscar?
Do you and I understand this grammar?