

The Landforms of the Earth

I. Fill in the blanks

1. If a mountain peak is very high ,then it might have a _____ peak.
2. A river originates upon the melting of a _____
3. The low area between the hills or mountains is known as a _____
4. A piece of land surrounded by water is known as an _____

2. Write true or false

1. There are same types of landforms on the earth _____
2. Large areas of dry land without any vegetation are known as deserts _____
3. Lakshadweep group of islands in India lies in the Bay of Bengal. _____
4. The fertile plains along the sea coast are called coastal plains _____

3. Unscramble the following words

1. LINSDA-
2. TEDERS-