

Choose the one underlined word (expression) in each sentence if it should be corrected.

- When the door opened the children was (1) surprised to see (2) that there was (3) nobody (4) in the room.
- During the last (1) three days the workers were not doing (2) something (3) because there was no (4) electricity in the town.
- Could you like (1) another (2) piece of cake, dear? — No, thank you, I've had (3) enough. (4)
- There were (1) too many people (2) at the bus-stop and as we were in a hurry (3), we decided to go in taxi. (4)
- Could (1) you bring me (2) anything (3) to eat? I'm a little hungry. (4) — OK, In a moment.
- The spoons and forks were (1) already (2) on the table, but there were no knifes (3) and we asked Sam to bring them. (D)
- We were surprised (1) when nobody opened the door, because we knew that Michael usually was (2) at home (3) after lunch. (4)
- I want to tell (1) you that I don't like when anybody takes (2) my things. But I promise that I'll never take (3) your. (4)
- She was the beautifullest (1) girl Bob ever met and her eyes were shining (2) with some (3) mysterious light that moved his heart at once. (4)
- Joanna was nervous. It was time to go to (1) the party, but there was no the (2) invitation in the room, and she knew (3) that they wouldn't let her in (4) without it.

