Doing the chores

According to a recent study of teenagers, most of them do not do house work just pocket money. While many do household chores because they see it a way of getting ready for adult life, feel they have a duty to help their parents because it is fair, especially their parents work.

More than two-thirds of the young people were surveyed clean floors least once week, and more than 80% regularly set the table for meals or the washing-up. Girls more likely than boys to wash their own

..... are, however, a few teens who only do the housework because they are made to their parents. They argue that they should be expected to help out at home because their view, their teenage years are a period should be enjoyed rather interrupted with household responsibilities.
