

Choose the correct item.

*

1. Have you packed your things ____ ? — Oh, yes, I have.
 1. yet                      2. already                      3. ever                      4. still
2. Have they brought the books? — Yes, they ____ them yesterday.
 1. have brought    2. were brought                      3. brought                      4. has brought
3. If my father ____ about the bad mark, he'll punish me.
 1. learnt                      2. will learn                      3. would learn    4. learns
4. My brother gave me ____ oranges to eat during the trip. We'll eat them in the bus.
 1. few                      2. a few                      3. little                      4. a little
5. The children had to stay after classes yesterday, ____ ?
 1. hadn't they    2. didn't they                      3. haven't they    4. did they
6. Where's Robert? — He's gone home. — Well, he never waits ____ me.
 1. —                      2. to                      3. for                      4. with
7. Do you see ____ out there?
 1. anyone                      2. somebody                      3. something                      4. anywhere
8. The teacher wanted to tell us something about the results of the test and made us ____ after classes.
 1. stay                      2. to stay                      3. staying                      4. stayed
9. Where's the letter from my sister? — It ____ to the mother.
 1. gives                      2. gave                      3. was given                      4. has given
10. Meg and Nancy didn't see each other for a long time and when they suddenly met in a little café they really enjoyed ____ about everything that had happened in their lives.
 1. to talk                      2. talking                      3. talked                      4. to be talking