3 You will hear a radio interview with a man called Richard Sandland, who is the head teacher of a secondary school. For questions 1-6, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

1 Why did Richard decide to create the wildlife area?
- A The students wanted to help local wildlife.
- B The area looked unattractive.
- C Some wildlife had already moved into the area.

2 What does Richard say about the long grass?
- A It will be replaced by a wild flower area.
- B It's great for attracting insects.
- C It will be left to grow around the pond.

3 What do Richard's students think about working on the project after school and at weekends?
- A They don't mind giving up their spare time for the project.
- B Many have been put off from getting involved.
- C They won't be able to help much because of their other hobbies.

4 Why did Richard need to involve an expert from the local wildlife society?
- A He wanted to be sure his plans would work.
- B He needed expert advice on what to do.
- C He wanted to encourage the students to join in.

5 What does Richard say about the modern education system?
- A It's not as good as it was when he was young.
- B It misses out an important part of education.
- C It doesn't offer enough choice of subjects.

6 What will students be doing frequently as the project progresses?
- A taking photographs of the wildlife area
- B giving reports to the radio station
- C writing about the project online
