

- 3 Complete the text with the correct forms of have to / don't have to and the verbs below. There is one extra verb.

give not go not look for not pay shake take

There's a problem with my smart bracelet:
I ¹ have to shake it to make it work!
But Mum says we ² _____ it back to the shop. She thinks the smart bracelet was probably broken when she bought it for me,
so the shop ³ _____ me a new one, or repair it. I haven't broken it, so Mum says I ⁴ _____ any money. But I hope
I ⁵ _____ its box, because I haven't seen it for ages!

- 5 Complete the article with have to, don't have to, or mustn't.

When you get a new smartphone for the first time, you quickly discover that it changes your life. You ¹ don't have to look further than your phone screen for social media, videos, music, and games, and you ² _____ remember appointments, because its calendar does that for you! However, smartphones are delicate machines, so you ³ _____ take care of them and remember a few important rules. First of all, you ⁴ _____ get a case for your phone to protect it. Secondly, you ⁵ _____ get your phone wet or it might get damaged. Thirdly, when you are in school, you ⁶ _____ forget to switch it off or it will ring and disturb people. And finally, and most important of all, you ⁷ _____ lose it!

