Grammar possessive 's

1 Look at the 's in each sentence. Write P next to the sentences with a possessive 's.

1 Carlo's restaurant is in Alnwick. P
2 Margot's a teacher. ___
3 Our daughter's name is Miriam. ___
4 His wife's from Jamaica. ___
5 This book's my English dictionary. ___
6 The park is near my uncle's house. ___
7 Where's your friend from? ___
8 I'm Emily's grandmother. ___

2 Look at the photo and complete the sentences about Sancho and his family.

1 Alfredo and Maria are Sancho's parents.
2 Ana is Alfredo and _____ daughter-in-law.
3 Manuel is _____ brother.
4 Maria's _____ name is Sancho.
5 Isabel and Manuel's _____ name is Alfredo.
6 Manuel's _____ name is Ana.
7 Isabel and Manuel are Ana and _____ children.

PRONUNCIATION same or similar sounding words?

3a Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

~~are~~ he's his our 's (x2) their they're your you're

1 My wife and I are from Egypt. _____ first language is Arabic.
2 Our neighbours are very nice. _____ from India. _____ names are Sanjay and Mira.
3 Jean-Paul is from France. _____ a restaurant owner. _____ wife, Annie, is a teacher.
4 Hi. _____ the new student. What's _____ name?
5 Angela_____ parents are doctors. Angela_____ a doctor, too.

3b 1.5 Listen. Pause the listening and repeat after each sentence. Pay attention to the pronunciation of the words in each of the gaps.

4 1.6 Listen and look at the bold words/phrases in each pair of sentences. Which two words/phrases do not have the same pronunciation? ___

1 They're Greek. Their car is German.
2 Henry's at home. Henry's wife is at work.
3 We are late. Our train is at nine o'clock.
4 He's married. His wife's name is Eleanor.
5 You're late. Where's your homework?

LIVEWORKSHEETS