

1. Complete the text with the correct words!

Rosy is sitting in the playground with her friends. It's lunchtime, but Rosy is very worried and can't eat her s . Her hands are s because she is really n .

She has to go to see the headmistress Mrs Bent and she doesn't know why. Mrs Bent is the wife of the customer she served in the restaurant. He saw her at Wimbledon and Rosy thinks Mrs Bent now knows that she took a day off her work e to go to watch tennis. t .

Anna knows Rosy is worried and feels nervous, too! Greg tells Rosy that everything will be fine. Luke says the same, but Rosy is still a with him because he caused all the problems.

Rosy tells the others that she feels sick and can't eat. Luke asks for her sandwich because he's s .

Rosy goes to Mrs Bent office and tells the secretary that she is there to speak to the headmistress. Rosy legs feel like j .

Mrs Bent tells the secretary that her husband will probably p . She asks the secretary to say that Mrs Bent is already d with the problem. Rosy thinks that she is talking about her and is sure she is in real t .

Rosy starts telling to Mrs Bent that she went to Wimbledon because she had some tickets. It was on Wednesday, a work experience day.

Mrs Bent asks to start at the b and tell her the whole story.

2. Answer these questions:

How does Mrs Bent feel? Why?

---

---

Did she know about Wimbledon?

---

---

Why did she want to see Rosy?

---

---

What's Mrs Bent going to do now?

---

---

---