

Inference

Match up the Sentence with the Situation

Sentence

The character is packing her sun hat and sun cream into a suitcase.

A character is looking at cards that say 'Mum' on them and carrying flowers.

The character is walking down the road with red eyes, wet cheeks and their head down.

A character is pacing up and down and keeps looking at her watch.

The character's fists are clenched together and their face is red.

A character jumps for joy with his family.

Situation

It is the character's mum's birthday.

The character is nervous and is waiting for something to happen.

The character is angry.

The character is going on holiday.

The character has won a running race.

The character is sad and has been crying.