

Complete with the correct preposition:

Nomophobia means the fear      losing, or not being able to use, your cell phone. Our research is showing a big increase      the number of people who are worried      separation from their phones. Are you familiar      this problem? Are you nomophobic? If you are, and you're tired      it, you can be part of our research into the reasons for your feelings. There is a need      more people to take part in research. We will help you to find a solution to this problem and be more responsible      using your phone. If you're interested in our work, please leave your e-mail address and we will be in contact      you shortly.
