

Complete with the correct preposition:

Nomophobia means the fear of losing, or not being able to use, your cell phone. Our research is showing a big increase in the number of people who are worried about separation from their phones. Are you familiar with this problem? Are you nomophobic? If you are, and you're tired of it, you can be part of our research into the reasons for your feelings. There is a need for more people to take part in research. We will help you to find a solution to this problem and be more responsible using your phone. If you're interested in our work, please leave your e-mail address and we will be in contact with you shortly.
