ECOTOURISM

1. Put the headings a–f in the correct place 1–6 in the text.

- a Is more infrastructure always bad?
- b What is ecotourism?
- c Is tourism always good?
- d How popular is ecotourism?
- e What exactly does ecotourism mean?
- f Is ecotourism really possible?

1. Tourism will always have an impact on the places visited. Sometimes the impact is good, but often it's negative. For example, if lots of people visit one place, then this can damage the environment. The question is – how can we minimize the problems without preventing people from travelling and visiting places?

2. The main aim of ecotourism is to reduce the negative impact that tourism has on the environment and local people. The idea is to encourage tourists to think about what they do when they visit a place

3. It's great to talk about protecting the environment, but how do you actually do this? There are a number of key points. Tourists shouldn't drop litter, they should stay on the paths, they shouldn't interfere with wildlife and they should respect local customs and traditions.

4. Some people see ecotourism as a contradiction. They say that any tourism needs infrastructure – roads, airports and hotels. The more tourists that visit a place, the more of these are needed and, by building more of these, you can't avoid damaging the environment.

5. But, of course, things aren't so black and white. Living in a place of natural beauty doesn't mean that you shouldn't benefit from things like better roads. As long as the improvements benefit the local people and not just the tourists, and the local communities are consulted on plans and changes, then is there really a problem?

6. In 2002 the United Nations celebrated the 'International Year of Ecotourism'. Over the past twenty years, more and more people have started taking eco-holidays. In countries such as Ecuador, Nepal, Costa Rica and Kenya, ecotourism represents a significant proportion of the tourist industry

2. Read the sentences and write T (True) or F (False).

- a. The writer thinks that tourism should be stopped.
- b. Ecotourism is about making more money from tourists.
- c. Tourists should think about their behaviour.
- d. It doesn't matter where people walk.
- e. More roads and buildings are built because of tourism.
- f. It's good when local people are asked for their opinions.
- g. Ecotourism is becoming less popular.
- h. For some countries ecotourism is very important.

3. Look at the two eco-holiday adverts and answer the questions.

Take a ten-day holiday in Antarctica!

- Stay at a science research base and help scientists studying wildlife in its natural environment.
- Go whale-watching and see penguins.
- Remember to take warm clothes as it gets very cold.

Spend two weeks in the Simpson Desert in Australia

- Work with archaeologists on the site of an old settlement.
- Help with digging and sorting the things you find.
- Remember it gets very hot and there's not a lot of water!
