

STARTING OVER

Help the writer of this report rephrase his article so it can be uploaded in a blog.
Complete the second sentences so it means the same as the first.
Use the correct form of a verb + adverb combination.

- As some countries deport refugees to their homelands, they sometimes go to the woods where no one will find them.
As some countries deport refugees to their homelands, they sometimes _____ in the woods.
- Adalaine remembers: "My father came and told me, put all your stuff into boxes and leave soon."
Adalaine remembers: "My father came and told me, _____ and leave soon."
- In places where there is extreme poverty, the lack of food or water makes people leave their hometowns.
In places where there is extreme poverty, the lack of food or water _____ people _____ their hometowns.
- You can stay in the refugee camp for only some months, then you have to leave.
You can stay in the refugee camp for only some months, then you have to _____
- It is easy to get tricked by smugglers or evil people, some families give to them all they have to ensure their children arrive safely to the other side of the border.
It is easy to get tricked by smugglers or evil people, some families _____ all they have to ensure their children arrive safely to the other side of the border.
- It is difficult for a refugee to get an employment in the new country. Most refugees finish their journeys feeling isolated and discriminated.
It is difficult for a refugee to get an employment in the new country. Most refugees _____ feeling isolated and discriminated.

Can you think of any other difficulties refugees may face?
Write two more ideas using some of the multi-word verbs we have been practising.