

Choose the one underlined word (expression) in each sentence if it should be corrected.

(Mind the British English!)

1. She opened the door and saw (1) her brother to wash (2) the dishes that was so unusual (3) for him. (4)
2. The children wanted (1) to visit (2) their granny in the village, but they hadn't any (3) idea that she was at hospital. (4)
3. Where can I get some (1) books on Geography? I need them to get ready for the test tomorrow. There is no material (2) in the textbook, and my friends haven't got (3) it too. (4)
4. Everybody was at home (1) yesterday, wasn't he? (2) — No, some of (3) the children were at the concert (4) of classical music.
5. Not all the children could have an apple (1) for lunch. (2) There were too many (3) children and too a few (4) apples for everybody.
6. Michael's work was (1) one of the (2) best in our class, but the teacher said, that my (3) was done more carefully. (4)
7. The task was very difficult for (1) the pupils, because it gave (2) without any time (3) to get ready for it. (4)
8. If there will be (1) rain tomorrow, we won't be able to (2) paint the fence and will have (3) to put it off (4) till next weekend.
9. When the phone rang (1), Nelly read (2) a book, but had to (3) stop doing (4) it to answer the call.
10. The weather was (1) very hot and the tourists enjoyed (2) to eat (3) ice-cream many times a day. (4)

