

Listening adverbs

1. Listen and choose the correct option.

You're a good/well dancer and you danced good/well. But you chose a bad/badly song and you sang it bad/badly. It sounded terrible/terribly. So I can only give you three out of ten.

That meal was perfect/perfectly. The wine was excellent/excellently and you cooked everything perfect/perfectly. It looked good/well and it tasted delicious/deliciously. Ten out of ten.

Can't you forget your job when we go out, dear?