

COMPARISONS

Task: Fill the sentences below with the comparative or superlative form of the adjective in brackets. Then match to the pictures. There is one picture that has no matching sentence.

- The painter is just _____ his friend. (selfish)
- Ben is _____ of the family. (hungry)
- The criminal is _____ than Al Capone. (dangerous)
- I'm getting my lungs checked to make sure they are _____ they should be. (healthy)
- David's new haircut is _____ than the previous one. (trendy)
- Craig's new haircut is not _____ the previous one. (trendy)
- Mary is _____ at playing cards than the rest of the company. (good)
- Pam enjoys reading _____ than her siblings. (much)
- The man is _____ than ever because he made his fortune. (happy)
- Tom hates doing homework just _____ he hates washing the dishes. (much)
- Cameron is _____ than a credit card. (skinny)
- Jim wants to be _____ chessplayer in the world when he grows up. (good)
- Columbo had _____ car in town. (old)
- The kids spend _____ watching TV than sleeping. (long)
- My dad, who is an architect, earns _____ in my family. (much)
- The pizza delivery guy was _____ always. (fast)
- Grandpa is _____ about reading than grandma, who prefers knitting to reading. (enthusiastic)
- This summer has been _____ than the previous one. (rainy)
- The new waitress is _____ than the old one. (pretty)
- These days monks are _____ to the outside world than in the old days. (connected)
- I do hiking _____ than my friends. (often)
- My room is going to look much _____ in green than the previous white. (nice)
- Peter is not nearly _____ Picasso. (talented)

