

Error Correction – My family. Name:

There are six members in my family. I am the youngest of four siblings. Being the youngest, I must admit that my parents tend to pamper me more (0) then my brothers and sisters. There are times when my siblings find this annoying but we still (1) loved each other very much. My brother Andre and Aaron are twins. They will be (2) seating for (3) they're SPM examination at the end of the year. They study very hard. My parents, sister and I give them a lot of moral (4) supports. They hope to (5) obtained straight As in their SPM. I always make sure to be quiet when they are studying. My sister, Amanda, is the (6) elder. She is now in college and will (7) graduated in another year. She is currently taking a business and (8) market course. She hopes to become successful in sales management. We all hope she achieves her ambition. We are (9) confidence that she can do it. We are a very (10) closed and loving family. We have our ups and downs but at the end of the day, "blood is always thicker than water".	(0) than (1) (2) (3) (4) (5) (6) (7) (8) (9) (10)

Error Correction – My favourite uncle and aunty.

I am lucky enough to have a dozen aunts and uncles. Of all my uncles, I like Uncle Ben the (0) more. He is 32 years old and he is an English teacher at a local primary school. I (1) liked him because he is the only uncle (2) whose takes the time to talk to me and help me with my (3) study. He pays particular attention to my English as I am weak in this subject. On Saturdays, I go over to his house and he (4) tutor me for free. In exchange for his kindness, I help him to clean up (5) about his house. On the other (6) hands, among all my aunts, I like Aunty Cindy the (7) better. She is my father's eldest sister. She has a great sense of humour and always (8) make me laugh. Every Saturday, I pay her a visit. She lives only a stone's throw away from my house. Not only (9) do she treat me to delicious food and cakes but she also (10) buys storybooks, comics and clothes for me. My mother says that Aunty Cindy spoils me but I don't mind!
