

1 Work in pairs. Complete these sentences with the correct form of the verbs.

- 1 At the party they (drink) orange juice and (eat) birthday cake that she (help) her mother bake earlier that day.
- 2 Caroline (only run) for a few minutes when she (fall).
- 3 She (never be) so embarrassed in all her life.
- 4 While they (clean up) after the party, they (find) a watch that someone (leave).
- 5 After the party, her father (tell) her the garden shed (be) out of bounds and she (can not) play there any more.

Complete the table with the words

Brightly, unfortunately, on her twelfth birthday, then, after that, eventually, as soon as, after a while, immediately, while, so in the end, it took a few weeks for, gradually, heavily, anxiously, amazingly

3 Complete the paragraph below with time expressions, appropriate adverb of manner or attitude markers.

Margaret and Jim were on holiday in Tenerife staying in a rather up-market resort. One evening, they decided to have dinner at a beautiful restaurant they had passed many times before.¹ they arrived they were surprised, as all the guests were very well dressed and seemed to know each other. Undaunted, they² sat at a free table and waited³ for the menu, but it never arrived.⁴ they began to feel a bit uncomfortable until a waiter approached and explained they couldn't stay as it was a private engagement party for invited guests only.⁵ the sign saying 'Private party' had been blown over by the sea breeze. They left⁶ but went back the next evening and had a wonderful dinner.