A Read the newspaper report and answer the questions that follow. 2.3.1(b), 3.3.1(a)

The Daily Press, WEDNESDAY, 9 AUGUST 2017

TAXI DRIVER REWARDED

KOTA BHARU: Wong Beng Chai, a taxi driver, was rewarded for returning a bag to its owner yesterday.

Yesterday morning, Beng Chai was driving his taxi along Jalan Besar. A man stopped him. He wanted to go to Jalan Bandar. When they arrived, the passenger paid the taxi fare. Then he walked hurriedly into a tall building.

When Beng Chai was about to leave, he saw a black leather bag on the back seat of his taxi. He quickly opened the bag and saw two expensive watches and a wallet in it. He felt that he should return the bag to the passenger. So, he went straight to the tall building.

He walked up to the reception counter and told the receptionist about the incident. On hearing this, the receptionist made a call and took Beng Chai to the director's room. Beng Chai recognised him at once. He returned the bag to him. The man thanked Beng Chai for his honesty. He offered him a good job with high income. Beng Chai accepted his offer.

Tick the correct answer.

1 The man wanted to go to…

Jalan Bandar ☐ Jalan Besar ☐

2 The most suitable proverb for the story is…

Dishonesty never pays ☐ Look before you leap ☐ Honesty pays ☐

LIVEWORKSHEETS