E The newspaper report below is about Hui Xin. Find out what she did. 2.2.2(a)

The Nation Post, SUNDAY, 6 AUGUST 2017

GENEROUS SCHOOLGIRL DONATED HER SAVINGS

KAJANG: Hui Xin, a Year Six pupil from Kajang, donated her savings of RM800 to a kidney patient. The patient is Mr Wee Lun from Pahang. He needs RM150, 000 for the kidney transplant. Hui Xin read about his appeal for donation in the newspaper.

Without the savings, she could not buy the tablet she wanted most. She said that she wouldn't mind because she wanted to save the uncle's life. She could buy the tablet later.

Azwin interviews Hui Xin for his school magazine. Use the information in the newspaper report to complete the interview. 3.3.1(a)

Azwin : I heard that you have donated your savings to a kidney patient.

Hui Xin: Yes, I read about (1) _____ in the newspaper.

Azwin : What makes you want to (2) _____?

Hui Xin: I feel sorry for the uncle. If he does not have enough money for (3) _____, he will die.

Azwin : What about the tablet you (4) _____?

Hui Xin: Saving a life is more important than (5) _____ I can get it later.

Azwin : You are such a kind and (6) _____. Thank you for sharing your experience with me.

Hui Xin: You're welcome.

- generous girl
- buying the tablet
- wanted to buy
- the kidney transplant
- donate the money
- his appeal for donation

LIVEWORKSHEETS