

WRITING

Part A: Read the notes below and answer the question that follows.

Part	Content	Sentence
Introduction	Greet the audience	Good morning to (list of audience) Example: Good morning teachers and friends.
	Introduce yourself	My name is Najmee. I'm from 6 Robotics.
	Introduce the topic	I'm here to present a speech. The topic is "How to Stay Safe from Strangers".
Body paragraph	Opening sentence	Strangers are someone you don't know. They are maybe abductors. Therefore, be alert!
	Main point Elaboration	Strangers lure children with candies and money. Don't accept them and walk away.
	Main point Elaboration	If strangers approach you, quickly run away. Tell your friends and parents about it.
	Main point Elaboration	If they grab you, kick them and scream. Alert other people so that they will rescue you.
Conclusion	Restate the topic	In conclusion, do not ever trust the stranger.
	Thank the audience	Thank you for listening.

Notes:

Before you write your speech, you need to know who the audience is, what topic you are going to present, what information you want to tell or share with the audience, and how long the speech needs to be.

1. Draft a speech on Staying Safe from Strangers.

- Step 1: List the points using any graphic organizers.
- Step 2: Draft simple sentences (SVO/SVC/SVOC)
- Step 3: Paragraph the same ideas.
- Step 4: Check GPSS
