4. Найди по два лишних слова в каждом отрывке и выпиши их в порядке упоминания в тексте:

a) She was a woman of thirty-seven years, looking her age, rather tall, and plump, without being fat: she liked to tell everybody how slender she was at the age of seventeen. She was not such pretty.
Ответ:

b) Though she had irregular features, her face was pleasing, chiefly, perhaps, on account of her kind blue eyes with there long curving eyelashes and straight penciled eyebrows. Her skin was rather yellowish and her nose was large. She was the only woman of the three whose face was free of it make-up.

5. Прочитай текст и найди одно лишнее слово в каждой строчке:

1 When it came to time to create the plastic case for his toaster,
2 Thwaites realized he would need of crude oil to make the plastic.
3 This time, he called up BP and you asked if they would fly him
4 out to an oil rig and lend him anything oil for the project. They 5 immediately refused. It seems so oil companies aren't nearly as 6 generous as iron mines. Thwaites had to settle it for collecting
7 plastic scraps and melting them into the their shape of his toaster
8 case. This is not such as easy as it sounds. The homemade 9 toaster ended up looking for more like a melted cake than a 10 kitchen appliance. There pattern continued for The Toaster Project.
