

Read and write A(angiosperms) or G(gymnosperms).

1. Animals or wind transfer pollen into the stigma.
2. The male organs are called stamens.
3. They reproduce with seeds inside cones.
4. They reproduce with seeds inside the fruit.
5. The female cones are large and contain ovules.
6. Pollen goes down the style to the ovary.
7. Wind blows pollen from the male cones into the female cones.
8. The female organ is called pistil.

Choose the correct option:

- Stolons grow  the ground.
- Non-flowering plants reproduce using .
- Tubers grow  the ground.
- In non-flowering plants the  blows the spores off the plants.
- In non-flowering plants spores are protected by spore .

Order the words to make sentences.

by developing inside seeds Angiosperms fruit. reproduce reproduce without Plants reproduction. seeds in asexual happens non-flowering Asexual in reproduction plants. all reproduce cones. Gymnosperms developing

by inside the seeds

