

HELPING OUT

INDEFINITE PRONOUNS

INDEFINITE PRONOUNS

	PEOPLE	THINGS
Affirmative	someone	something
Negative/ Interrogative	anyone	anything

- There is someone outside
- There is something in the box
- There isn't anyone at home
- Is there anything interesting?

The compounds 'someone/anyone/something/anything' follow the rules as 'any' and 'some'

Fill in the blanks with someone/something

- 1.- Look! There is under the bed.
- 2.- She knows in Italy who speaks English fluently.
- 3.- Martha did wrong yesterday.
- 4.- You were talking to on the phone.
- 5.- He was doing strange there.
- 6.-My cousin married in Australia.
- 7.-The kids drank good at the birthday party last Saturday.
- 8.-I would like to smoke
- 9.-Helen lost important for her.
- 10.-The lady wore on her head.

Fill in the blanks with anyone/anything

- 1.-Did you see at the pub?
- 2.-We didn't buy on the sales.
- 3.-Have you got to eat? I'm hungry.
- 4.-Has the man seen dangerous?
- 5.-Did she read about Canada?
- 6.-They haven't sent the invitations to yet.
- 7.- You can talk about to me now.
- 8.- There wasn't interesting at the cinema.
- 9.- There isn't at the post office.
- 10.- I didn't understand

Fill in the blanks with the appropriate indefinite pronoun

- 1.-There isn't in the basket. It's empty.
- 2.- Sonia has talked to very famous on TV.
- 3.-There wasn't in the fridge yesterday.
- 4.-The girls carried very heavy for their age.
- 5.-Is there at the library in the afternoons?