

GRAMMAR 2

Direct and indirect objects

Jason	gave	me	the comic book.			Object pronouns: me, you, her, him, us, them
Jason	gave		the comic book	to	me.
Our teacher	made	us	a cake.
Our teacher	made		a cake	for	us.

The two sentences mean the same thing.

Jason gave me the comic book. = Jason gave the comic book to me.

With make and buy, use for: Our teacher made / bought a cake for us.

1 Look at pictures 1-4. Underline the correct verb.

1.

Project

Instructions:
Work in pairs. Make a poster for two classmates.

2.

3.

4.

1. Last week we had to make / buy / give a poster for two classmates.
2. So we told / made / sold Jaime and Delia a bug poster.
3. Later we showed / sold / wrote the teacher our work. She liked it.
4. After that, Jaime and Delia sold / told / gave us a wonderful fossil poster.

2 Write. Write the sentences from Activity 1 in a different way.

Last week we had to make two classmates a poster.

SONG

1 Listen to the song. Match the sentence parts. TR: 3.4

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. The boy who has the highest score | because I think they're sweet. |
| 2. The girl who collects a fossil | can see them in her dreams. |
| 3. I collect stuffed animals | on my new cell phone. |
| 4. The girl who reads about dinosaurs | wins the video game. |
| 5. I like to talk about my hobby | wants to learn its name. |

3 Listen. Write the missing letters to make a sound like oy in the word enjoy. Then rewrite each word under the correct spelling. TR: 3.6

- | | | | |
|--------------|-----------|----------|-------------|
| 1. enj__oy__ | 2. ____l | 3. t____ | 4. ch____ce |
| 5. n____se | 6. c____n | 7. b____ | 8. j____ |

oy	oi
enjoy	