

FIRST CONDITIONAL

We use the First Conditional to refer to actions that are likely to happen in the future.

IF	SUBJECT	PRESENT SIMPLE	SUBJECT	FUTURE SIMPLE
If	many people	drive	pollution	will increase.
IF	CONDITION		RESULT OR CONSEQUENCE

UNLESS = IF NOT

If you don't work harder, you will fail your exam
Unless you work harder, you will fail your exam

Complete the sentences using the verbs in brackets in the present simple or the future simple. Then write the number of the sentences with the right picture.
