Shavuot- What is it?

Have you ever been in a wedding? What do you think are the preparations for this special day?

Well, the family needs to organize so many things: look for a hall, photographer, clothing, and a gown for the bride.

In the Jewish calendar there is a holiday that is like what mentioned above. And that is Shavuot.

Shavuot is the marriage between Hashem and Bnei Israel.

The groom (Hashem) and the bride (Bnei Israel) sign the contract= the "Ktuba" where is written the commitment to each other.

How do we prepare for this day?

1. Having unity
2. "Mivtzoim"- bringing Jews to hear the ten commandments
3. counting of the Omer
4. learning Torah and praying
