

Vocabulary

Break in, face up to, follow suit, give way, leak out, point out, pull out, speak for, spell out

1. What do you mean you don't understand? Do I have to ..... (it) for you?

2. If I were her, I ..... the fact that he's not going to marry her.

3. He ..... of the championship before it started because of an injury.

4. You are supposed ..... to traffic coming from the right.

5. Thieves ..... our office downtown three times this month.

6. He was planning to book a rock-climbing holiday, till I ..... that Denis is afraid of heights.

7. If he had known he was going to be sent to jail, he ..... the news of the government's spying on private citizens last month.

8. When one airline reduces its ticket prices, the rest usually .....

9. In no way ..... my department as a representative in tomorrow's meeting. I believe this is our boss' responsibility.