LESSON: 8
TOPIC: Use of Verb Tenses (Present Simple)
TASK: 1 of 2

1. Mark the sentences that contain a mistake:

1) My teacher gives me many good advices that I'll never forget.
2) The agency gives you some information about accommodation at the tourist office.
3) The most people buy things like cameras and MP3-players online these days.
4) If don't have any plans tonight let's get a paper and see what's on at the cinema.
5) I think it's a good idea if I call him and ask if he wants me to come.
6) There were so much good news that she was on the cloud nine.
7) NASA creates different types of spacecrafts in their fifty-nine-year history.
8) I believe he has some memory disorder as he always asks me where do I live.
9) They never give me some information about courses and scholarships and things.
10) The alumni of the university always tries to support their Alma Mater.

2. Write out an odd word for each sentence:

1) We're going to get these new furniture for the living room.
2) They often have a quiz every week, with questions about general knowledge.
3) Mother wants me to explain to her what I see in the street.
4) The woman in the shop asks me why not I talk to her.
5) A good education is the best investment in Britain's future.
6) There's no many work to do here, so you can go home if you like.
7) 'Hamlet' is one of Shakespeare's the most famous works.
8) He enquires really persistently when do I intend to pay him.

LIVEWORKSHEETS