

Continents of the World

Relate each paragraph to the correct subtitle.

_____ is the third smallest continent in the world.

- _____ is almost completely covered in ice.
- It is surrounded by the Southern Ocean.
- It is the coldest and windiest continent.
- Each year, hundreds of scientists live and work in _____.
- _____ is home to penguins, albatross and seals.

_____ is the third biggest continent in the world.

- Major countries in _____ include the USA and Canada.
- Pumpkin and corn originally came from here.
- _____ is home to bears, moose and skunks.

_____ is the fourth biggest continent in the world and it only has 12 countries.

- Major countries include Brazil and Argentina.
- The Amazon, the world's biggest rainforest, is found here.
- Tomatoes, potatoes and chocolate all come from _____ originally.
- _____ is where you will find llamas, sloths and jaguars.

_____ is the second smallest continent in the world.

- _____ has 44 countries altogether.
- Major countries include France, Germany and the United Kingdom.
- Apples, pears and raspberries all originally from Europe.
- The majority of Australians have ancestors from _____.
- _____ is home to foxes, wolves and bears.

EUROPE

AFRICA

OCEANIA

ASIA

ANTARCTICA

NORTH AMERICA

SOUTH AMERICA

_____ is the biggest continent in the world. It's 2/3 of the world's population live in _____.

- Major countries include India and China.
- The Himalayas, the world's tallest mountains, are found here.
- The Dead Sea, the lowest point on land, is also in _____.
- _____ is home to tigers, monkeys and giant pandas.

_____ is the second biggest continent in the world.

- _____ has 54 countries, more than any other continent.
- Major countries include Egypt, Nigeria and South _____.
- The River Nile in Africa is thought by many to be the longest river in the world, although some claim the longest is the River Amazon in South America.
- _____ also has the world's biggest non-polar desert, the Sahara.
- _____ you will find giraffes, elephants and lions.

_____ is the smallest continent in the world.

- _____ is sometimes called an island-continent.
- The Great Barrier Reef, the world's largest coral reef, is in Oceania.
- Australasian Aboriginal people first came to _____ more than 50 000 years ago.
- The continent nearest to _____ is Asia.
- _____ has many unique animals including kangaroos, koalas and emus.