

TELLING A STORY

NAME: _____

Annie uses these expressions to bring her story to life. Match them with correct places in the conversation.

you'll never believe what the strangest thing happened to me the other day

well, let me finish

that was the annoying thing

what are the chances?

Annie:

Mac:

What?

Annie:

I woke up with this song in my head and I couldn't stop singing it all day long. It was really annoying.

Mac:

What was it?

Annie:

. It was a song I knew, but I couldn't remember what it was. I even sang it to a few of my friends, but they didn't know what it was either.

Mac:

So what was so strange about that?

Annie:

. I got home from school (with the song still in my head) and I went upstairs to do my homework. I decided to put on the radio to try and forget the song, and they were playing!

Mac: Go on.

Annie: They were playing the song that I'd been singing all day!

Mac: So you'd just been singing a pop song that you'd forgotten the name of.

Annie: Yes, but the strange thing is that it wasn't a pop song from now. It was some obscure song from the 1980s that you never hear any more.

It was a song that my dad used to play when I was really small.

I hadn't heard it for years. And they were playing it on the radio!

Mac: Yes, that is pretty weird.
