any other words you may need.

1.	Luckily, the infection was stopped before it caused him serious harm. (harmed, seriously).
	Luckily, the infection was stopped before he	by it.
2.	There was a car accident, but nobody needed to see a doctor. (injured)
	There was a car accident, but
3.	When we tried the new medication on her, we saw a positive response. (reacted, positively)
	When we tried the new medication on her, she
4.	He is allergic to nuts. (allergy)
	He	_ to nuts.
5.	He's in bed with a high temperature. (sick)
	He
6.	They decided not to climb the mountain because it was too dangerous. (risky)
	They decided that the mountain
7.	I'm allergic to gluten. Will I be OK if I eat this cookie? (safe)
	I'm allergic to gluten for me to eat th	is cookie?
8.	They discovered the new treatment by chance, (accidental)

Complete the second sentences so that they mean the same as the first ones. Use the words given and

Widter the series for the	в	Match	the	sentence	halves
---------------------------	---	-------	-----	----------	--------

The discovery _____

- He had a purple bruise on his arm
 She fractured her toe when she
 The blood stopped as soon as I cleaned the scrape before it
- 5. She put her hand under cold running water6. She sprained her ankle six weeks ago and she
- ______7. He broke his nose when he
- _____ 8. It's a very old injury he got when he

- a. hasn't been able to walk since then.
- b. they bandaged the cut tightly.
- c. half an hour after the ball hit it.
- d. fell into the goalpost.
- e. immediately after getting burned.
- f. dropped a box on it.
- g. was a child.
- h. could become infected.

after	as soon as	before	until	when
In the	e event of an eme	ergency, exit	the buildin	ıg	you hear the alarm	leaving the building,	do not run, and o	do not use th	e elevator	s. Do not co	ollect your belongings	heading to the exit—	-you can get ther	n	you are to	old the build	ding is safe to reenter. Please	wait patiently in

