2 Complete the text. Use one word in each gap.

Well, we <sup>(0)</sup> had our house broken into last week. It was awful – they wrecked the place. Not only did we <sup>(1)</sup> ..... things taken, not only did I have my beautiful iPhone and camera <sup>(2)</sup> ..... but a lot of things also <sup>(3)</sup> ..... broken as they searched the house. Some of the windows <sup>(4)</sup> ..... smashed as they tried to break in, so now we've got to get all the damage <sup>(5)</sup> .....

So we've decided to give the house a complete makeover. We're going to <sup>(6)</sup> ..... the whole house redecorated. The first place we're going to start is the living room. We're going to have <sup>(7)</sup> ..... repainted. I want to have one of the walls <sup>(8)</sup> ..... green, something I've always wanted. I'll also get my housemate <sup>(9)</sup> ..... build a new TV stand and CD tower – both green, of course!

Since the burglary, I've also become more active in the community and have campaigned to <sup>(10)</sup> ..... new surveillance cameras installed in our street. This means a lot of trees will <sup>(11)</sup> ..... chopped down to make people's houses visible to the camera but it is a small sacrifice compared with the safety and security of our homes.

WAITER: How would you like to have your eggs cooked, sir?

CUSTOMER: Is there any difference in the price?

WAITER: No, sir.

CUSTOMER: Then please have the chef cook them with ham, potatoes and sausages.
