

UNIT 1: ALTHOUGH, WHILE, WHEREAS

Task 1: Join these sentences using: although, while, whereas.

1. My dad only spent a month in Australia. However, he learned a lot of English when he was there.

→ Although my dad only spent a month in Australia, he learned a lot of English when he was there.

2. Some people are good at languages. Other find it very difficult to learn another language.

→ Some people are good at languages, whereas/ while others find it difficult to learn another language.

3. Geography is his favourite subject. However, he didn't know where Papua New Guinea was. (although)

→

4. I prefer reading and writing. My friend likes speaking and working in groups. (while/ whereas)

→

5. English is quite easy to learn in the early stages. French is quite difficult. (while/ whereas)

→

6. She speaks really good English. However, she's never been to an English-speaking country. (although)

→

7. Russian uses the Cyrillic alphabet. Polish uses the Roman alphabet. (while/ whereas)

→