

Trip to Kuala Lumpur.

Last school holidays, my family and I made a trip to Kuala Lumpur. We _____ from home at 8.00 am and we reached in Kuala Lumpur around 10.00 am. Then, we booked a room at the Swiss Hotel in Kuala Lumpur. After unpacking our stuff at the hotel, we decided to have our _____ at a nearby restaurant.

After the meal, we visited our first tourist attraction, KLCC Aquaria. We saw various types of fish there. My father took _____ of the colourful and exotic sea creatures. My brother and I were busy looking at them. After viewing the fishes, we went to the _____ shop to buy some souvenirs. Then, we went back to the hotel to rest.

The next day, we went to the Butterfly Park. There are more than 5000 colourful live butterflies in the park, which is also the _____ butterfly garden in the world. We saw many of the _____ butterflies fluttering from flower to flower all over the place. We also had an opportunity to watch the magnificent Rajah Brooke's Birdwing, the national butterfly of Malaysia.

After visiting the Butterfly Park, we proceeded to our next destination, Zoo Negara. After buying the tickets, we entered the zoo. We saw lots of _____ such as the elephants, lions, tigers, Malayan tapirs and so on. We also took some photographs with the tame animals. We enjoyed watching the crocodile _____ show very much. Then, we bought some postcards in a souvenir shop in the zoo.

On the last day, we packed our luggage in the morning. Then, we checked out of the hotel. Although we were very tired but we were as happy as a lark. We had an _____ time. I had also gained a lot of _____ from the trip, which was an eye-opener for me. It was indeed the best holiday trip that I made.

largest	snapshots	feeding	lunch	knowledge
enjoyable	animals	departed	souvenir	attractive